BOOK SYNOPSIS

Meredith Abbott leaves her parents farm for Hollywood on a whim for an adventure. She catches the eye of Antonio DeLeon, the most famous actor in the world, charismatic, rich, a drunk, a womanizer, and a world-class liar. But Meredith is in love and she wills it to work. Screeching tires and twisting metal destroy her illusions. Divorce was easy; healing her shattered heart another story. She takes her friends advice to heart at last: Never date an actor; they lie for a living. Then Timothy, an aristocratic, persistent Brit pursues her. He gradually convinces her hes not really an actor; he just needs the money to pursue another dream. Is he telling the truth or another skilled liar? Is he merely acting like he loves her? Meredith will have to decide!
